

I found my answer at BLK...

"Passion for healing"

Yes this hospital prove this and demonstrated in my treatment.

Incident: while riding a sports bike, me and my friend met with an accident. A lady lost her control and suddenly applied break on her car and both of us lost control over our bike.

Then we made a call to Police at 100110 and note down the car number. We approached
B.L. Kapoor Hospital because of its good reputation.
We treated immediately in Emergency department.

A Team of Doctors diagnosed that I need to be operated immediately. Within one hour I found myself in the operation Theatre of Neuro Department with well experien ced
